

BLOCK KIDS UPDATE

Jan. 22, 2010

The Block Kids competition will be held on Friday, February 5, 2010 at Root Elementary School. The time is uncertain right now, but it should start around 1pm and go until at least 3pm. This year we are expecting a VERY LARGE CROWD of students who will be participating. The ENTIRE 5th grade, approximately 80 students, will be competing against each other for the top prize. Because of this large amount of participants, we need EVERYONE to help with this contest.

There are jobs for everyone to do such as set-up, take-down, judging, photography, snack and drink organizers and the list goes on. Luckily this year we do not have to count blocks, but we need all the donations we can get from the members for goody bags, snacks & drinks, etc.

We are looking for construction signs to place around the school's cafeteria, and any other creative ideas are welcomed.

If we have 80 kids at 100 Lego blocks per child that's 8000 LEGOS!!! We probably have about a quarter of that right now. We don't need anyone to go out and buy the blocks, but it would be great if you or your company would like to pledge to pay for X Bags of Blocks...that's 100 Legos per bag. Any proceeds will go towards the cost of the blocks, the Ziploc bags and any other supplies necessary for the contest. Any amounts are appreciated.

Please contact me as soon as possible if you are able to help with a donation of money, your time, your abilities and skills, snacks, drinks, popsicles, etc.

We are looking forward to this contest, and we hope that you will help to make this the best Block Kids contest ever!
